

SUPPLY LIST: (4-5 DAY WORKSHOP)

SUE ARCHER NWS AWS TWSA FWS

Paper: 4 sheets 140 lb. Arches 22x30 (or 300lb) should be enough. (We will be cutting some of them)

(For advanced level: equivalent quality paper that you already work with.)

(In the workshop, I work on 1/2 or 1/4 sheets of Arches 140 or 300 CP).

If you are flying you will need to cut them into 1/2 or 1/4's ; or bring Arches watercolor block: 12 x 16 or 18 x 24 140 lb. CP (or larger).

Brushes: Bring the brushes you are using already; make sure you (at least) have the following size brushes.

(And for those who need advice on what to purchase, a good selection to begin with would be)

Loew-Cornell golden takalon or Robert Simmons synthetic: (I use these)

1" one stroke or flat wash

8 and #12 round

Pigments: tubes (not cake, pan or liquid) watercolors. Good brands that are available:

American Journey (AJ) (best buy) Da Vinci (DV) (best buy) Holbein (H)

Winsor Newton (expensive) (WN) Dale Rowney (DR) Daniel Smith (DS)

Please at least have available the following tube watercolors; 1 tube of each (not cake or pan); and for experienced painters, bring any other colors you normally have on your palette):

- Permanent Rose, Permanent Rose Deep DV or Quin Red or (Pomegrante AJ, Ramblin Rose AJ)
- New Gamboge DS DR or (Carr Yellow AJ, Gamboge Hue DV, Gamboge Nova H)
- Aureolin Yellow DS, DR, WN or (Sour Lemon AJ, Hansa Yellow Lt. DV)
- Cobalt Blue
- Burnt Sienna
- Alizarin (quin base) or (Anthraquinoid Red DS)
- Indanthrone DS DR or (Indanthrene WN, Royal Blue H, Midnight Blue AJ)
- Thalo Blue or (Joe's Blue AJ, Prussian Blue, Windsor Blue WN,)
- Sap Green or Thalo Green

(don't buy the following, but bring them if you already have them):

Yellow Ochre (or Raw Sienna), any Black, and Cerulean Blue

Misc:

- Palette with cover (made for watercolors)
- water container
- hair dryer
- support board (for 1/2 sheet: size 16"x23") and (large one if you like to work full sheet)
- Sketch pad (11x14 at least): (for sketching, drawing, notes), drawing pencils and soft eraser
- tracing paper: several sheets, min. size 11x14
- 2 (3-4 oz.) covered containers such as: (small baby food bottles or Glad 4 oz. plastic containers.)
- DIGITAL CAMERA or TABLET (if you have one) It will come in handy.

Bring photos of your work, or work in progress: a few photos of your paintings (printed out or on tablet/ computer), unfinished work, and/or finished work. If there is time, these will be useful when I am discussing your work with you.

A personal, one on one consultation time will be available if time permits.

Advanced painters will have time to work on your own work. I will encourage you to do this.

And have a list of questions ready for me specific to your own work.

HOMEWORK to bring to the workshop:

REFERENCE MATERIAL: Bring your own resource material to work from.

Your own photos, sketches, drawings, etc. of the subject matter that appeals to you and that you normally work from. Photos you want to work from are easier to gather information if they are blown up to approximately 8x10

We will be painting “light”. Make sure your photos are taken in sunlight or with a “single” light source so your reference material fits this concept.

(true frontal lighting isn't good; it flattens out the light pattern on your subject. NO FLASH.)

If you are painting a still life, bring your objects along if you can.

I paint close-ups, but any subject matter with “light” can be addressed

(ex. figures, landscapes, flowers, macro imagery).

I am a planner, and I will be showing you my whole process.

DRAWINGS:

Bring 2 drawings done from your own reference material (and bring this reference with you), ¼ sheet or larger.

These should be drawings for paintings that you are interested in doing. (for a 3 day workshop, just 1)

These can be on drawing paper, and transferred with tracing paper to your watercolor paper after we adjust the shapes and design. Or, put directly on the watercolor paper if you work more directly.

For those artists that have been in my workshops before, make sure you bring lots of reference work to paint from, questions about your own work that you want help with and paintings for critiquing. Make sure your reference photos are taken in sunlight or with a “single” light source (not frontal lighting).

WORKSHOP PARTICIPANTS: Please bring with you:

- 2 all white objects: that have interesting shapes and large enough to draw
- 2 objects that interest you enough to draw and/or paint. Each object should have an interesting shape without much detail. Not real large. (Ex: fruit, vegetables, glass object, pottery, metal object, bottles, personal objects with memories, ect.) We will be sharing this.
- If you live close and want to do a specific still life with your objects, bring them and we can work on your composition and lighting.

For those painting still life, will end up sharing and/or combining these objects.

Looking forward to seeing you all; plan on working hard. Any questions e-mail me:
